CONSIDERING that Partner Universities are interested in continuing the Double Degree Programme in Philosophy cooperation recognising all activities after the expiration of the previous agreement

JOINTLY AGREE THE FOLLOWING:

Article 1 - Purpose of the Agreement

1.1 Partner Universities agree to recognize all activities after the expiration of the previous agreement and to renew the International Double Degree Programme that, further to some suitable arrangements on their respective initial courses, allows their respective students, fulfilling the conditions and requirements detailed in this Agreement, to be awarded with the following two separate degrees, which are fully recognized in their own country:

- I) Italian Universities (Italia): Laurea Magistrale in Filosofia;
- II) Otto-Friedrich-Universität Bamberg (Deutschland): Master in Philosophy.

1.2 In order to fulfil the obligations, set out in this Agreement, Partner Universities agree to respect the national laws and regulations and procedures of the two Countries.

Article 2 - Definitions

2.1 In this Agreement and its Annexes:

- “Agreement” means this document and its Annexes;
- “Double Degree Plan of studies” is the programme of study required to students to be awarded the double degree “Laurea Magistrale” (UNITS and UNIUD) / “Master” (UNIBA), as per art. 1.1 of this Agreement. It can be revised yearly and amended by mutual consent in writing by Partner Universities, in compliance with their didactic regulations and procedures set by applicable laws. Notification will be provided prior to the change taking effect;
- “Home University” means the University at which the student is first enrolled and registered in the Programme notwithstanding the location of courses;
- “Host University” refers to the University that has agreed to receive and register the students from the Home University under the Programme;
- “Italian Universities” are Università degli Studi di Trieste (hereinafter known as “UNITS”) and Università degli Studi di Udine (hereinafter known as “UNIUD”);
- “Partner Universities” are Italian Universities and Otto-Friedrich-Universität Bamberg (hereinafter known as “UNIBA”);
- “Programme” provides for the Double Degree Programme in Philosophy;
- “Programme Students” are students enrolled in the Programme at one of the Partner Universities.

Article 3 - Students

- 3.1 Partner Universities will select their students participating in the Programme, without setting out a fixed number of places although trying to maintain a balance between incoming and outgoing students.
- 3.2 Selection will be made among first year students; applicants have to meet with all specific curricular requirements and to make proof of sufficient linguistic competence verified during an interview. Applications must be submitted when enrolling to the Home University.
- 3.3 Students of Italian Universities will have to submit evidence of having successfully passed the “Deutsche Sprachprüfung für den Hochschulzugang (DSH)”, level 2 or higher (DSH German Language Proficiency Test for the Admission to Higher Education) before they take up their studies in Bamberg. i.e before the beginning of their 2nd year. Equivalent language certificates will be accepted if listed in Section 1 para (3) of the DSH regulations of UNIBA.
- 3.4 UNIBA Students, who spend their 2nd year of studies at the Italian Universities, will make proof of competence in Italian at level B1, which will be certified by the Language Centre of Bamberg University prior to the beginning of their studies in Italy.

Article 4 - Plan of studies

- 4.1 The Plan of studies of the Programme is an essential part of this Agreement (Annex 1 A and Annex 1 B); it can be amended by mutual consent in writing by Partner Universities, in compliance with their didactic regulations and procedures set by applicable laws.
- 4.2 Attended courses, carried out activities, and examinations passed at Italian Universities within the Plan of Studies of the Programme are fully recognized by UNIBA and vice versa.

Article 5 - Structure of the Plan of Studies

- 5.1 The Programme is organized into two academic years, each of which consists of two semesters.

- 5.2 During the 1st year students will take between 57 (Italian Universities Students) and 60 credits (UNIBA Students) at the home University; during the 2nd year they will take between 33 (Italian Universities Students) and 30 credits (UNIBA Students) at the Partner University.
- 5.3 Master thesis (with an abstract respectively in Italian and in German) counts 30 credits; it will be carried out at the Home University, and submitted at the Partner University. Two Supervisors, one for each country, will supervise the thesis.
- 5.4 Regulations for the distributions of credits, according with the requirements of both courses of studies, will be defined by the Programme Coordinators, and approved by the competent bodies of Partner Universities.
- 5.5 Examinations will take place and be recorded in accordance with each University regulations.
- 5.6 Partner Universities agree on the Comparison grading chart of Annex 2.
- 5.7 At Italian Universities the final examination will be organized under their regulations; to this extent both Supervisors and Co-Supervisor will be part of the Board of Examiners at the final examination. Co-Supervisor will be present either in person or in videoconference, or with a written report and a suggested mark.

Article 6 - Degree

- 6.1 Upon achievement of credits required by the Programme, students will be awarded the degrees mentioned in art. 1 of this Agreement.
- 6.2 The degree issuing process is specific of each University. The correspondence of the final degree mark is that of Annex 2.

Article 7 - Coordination of the Programme

- 7.1 Partner Universities will individually appoint one Programme Coordinator for each country: one for Italian Universities and one for UNIBA. For Italian Universities the Programme Coordinator will appoint its own Programme Coordinator Assistant; they will be answerable to the Head of their competent didactic structure and to their Chancellor/President. For Italian Universities the Programme Coordinator and the Programme Coordinator Assistant will represent one of the two Universities each.
- 7.2 The Programme Coordinators and the Programme Coordinator Assistant will assure the smooth running of the Programme in accordance with a consistent plan and monitor the observance of the terms. They will meet at least once a year in order to:
- ensure the availability of all useful promotional means to Partner Universities
 - verify the validity of the Plans of studies;
 - monitor the academic results achieved by students, considering the efforts made by the Partner Universities.
- 7.3 All suggestions concerning the organization of the Programme, the Plans of studies, the access of students, etc. will need the approval of the Boards of Partner Universities.

Article 8 . Students mobility

- 8.1 Students will be enrolled at the Home University and will register at the Host University according to its applicable regulations.
- 8.2 The career of students is managed by the Home University.
- 8.3 Tuition fees are paid only at Home University, and the Host University will waive tuition fees, except for statutory costs. Regional taxes supporting student rights as well as, if applicable, local administrative fees such as the Student Office contribution and the regional transit pass will be paid in each academic year by each student at the University where he/she actually studies in that year. Obligations to continue payment of such fees at the Home University in the year when the student is abroad at the Host University as well as possible exemption from such payment are governed by the regulation applicable at the Home University.

- 8.4 Students enrolled in the Programme will make proof of their Health Insurance and of their insurance against third-party liability and against accidents usually provided by the Home University.
- 8.5 Students are required to provide for their travel expenses and all living costs. They are encouraged to apply for financial support from various agencies and programmes for student mobility.
- 8.6 At Host University all duly registered students have the same access to the libraries, computer and other facilities as the local students.
- 8.7 All Students must abide by the Rules of the Host University while completing the Academic Program at the Host University.

Article 9 – Sustainability and Disputes

- 9.1 The Programme does not require any additional funding from Partner Universities. All the course work is done within the regular teaching loads of the existing courses at Partner Universities. Administrative work is provided by the administrative Offices of Partner Universities in charge of the Programme as described in Annex 3.
- 9.2 Partner Universities agree to try to solve in a friendly manner any dispute which might arise from the interpretation for this Agreement.

Article 10 Duration, Renewal, Termination and Amendment

- 10.1 This Agreement is valid for a period of 6 academic years, starting from the academic year 2022-2023.
- 10.2 Italian Universities educational plans are subject to annual approval by the Italian Ministry for Universities and Research (Mur). Therefore, notwithstanding the previous article, should the educational plan not be approved or not accredited by the National Agency, Italian Universities shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement for due cause.
- 10.3 The Agreement may be amended and/or extended only by mutual consent in writing of the Parties.
- 10.4 The Central Administration of each Partner University may bring this Agreement to an end by means of a registered letter addressed to the Central Administration of the other Partner Universities. This letter must be sent before January 1st, and will be enforced as of the subsequent academic year. In this case, Partner Universities will agree upon arrangements with respect to all their commitments concerning the students.
- 10.5 Partner Universities engage themselves to allow Programme Students to finish their studies. In the case of non-renewal, or termination of the Agreement, students will be allowed to complete their studies at the Home University.
- 10.6 This Agreement is drawn up in English and digitally signed.
- 10.7 The date of this Agreement is that affixed to the last signature.
